Vocation View: Come, Holy Spirit, with your seven-fold gifts. Inspire, enlighten, energize and encourage me to be a witness for the gospel.

Thought For The Day: Pope Benedict XVI asks us to pray for those whose handiwork fills the media. We pray that artists of all kinds will create works that promote the dignity of the human person. The Pope urges artists and media executives to represent people
 as we are, creatures made in God's image.

PLEASE NOTIFY US AT THE RECTORY WHEN: A family member is hospitalized or when a family member is homebound and would like to receive Holy Communion and/or the Sacrament of Penance.

Our next festival meeting will be May 19th at 7:00 in the Assembly Hall (Music Room.)

Variety and Craft Booth: We are in need of a variety of donations for the summer festival. We welcome all craft items, afghans, plush animals, toys, figurines, and household items, etc. This was a very successful booth last summer and your generous donations greatly benefit St. Lawrence. Items can be dropped off at the rectory or call 921-0328 to make arrangements for pick-ups.

From the Pastor

Happy Pentecost: The gifts of the Holy Spirit complete and perfect the virtues of those receive them and make the faithful docile in readily obeying divine inspirations. The seven gifts are: Wisdom: to direct your whole life to God's honor and glory. Understanding: to grasp the mysteries of the faith. Counsel: to warn you of the dangers to your salvation. Fortitude: strength to witness to Christ. Knowledge: to know God's will. Piety: to make you love God as a Father and obey Him because you love Him. Fear of the Lord: dread of sin. The fruits of the Spirit are perfections that the Holy Spirit forms in us as the first fruits of eternal glory. The apostolic tradition of the church lists twelve fruits: charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, generosity, gentleness, faithfulness, modesty, self-control and chastity.
