Thank You For Your Generosity

Vocation View: Like Jesus, you are called God's beloved. Renew your baptism commitment and pray for those discerning a call to priesthood or religious life. (Luke 3:15-16, 21-22)

Thought for the Day: Anxiety is the soul's greatest enemy, sin only excepted. When the heart is anxious and disquieted within itself, it loses the power to preserve those virtues, which are already acquired, and also the means of resisting the temptations of Satan, who does not fail to test the strength of that rope.

-- St. Francis DeSales

Many, many thanks to the ladies and maintenance men who so beautifully decorated the church for Christmas. They did a superlative job. And many thanks also to the choir for the beautiful music they provided for us here at St. Lawrence. Again, I wish to thank all of you for your well wishes and Christmas greetings

I am going to visit my mother in Oklahoma City. So, I will be away for the next ten to twelve days. On the weekdays I am away, Fr. Westerhoff will have the 9 o'clock Masses and Sister Helen Julia will have Communion Services at 8 o'clock. There will be a Saturday morning Mass at 8 o'clock as usual. There will be no Eucharistic Adoration while I'm away. It will resume on Thursday, January 28th.
