OFFERING

SEPTEMBER 8, 2013 $8,517.08

Vocation View: “Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.” In order to be healed, we must first realize that we need to be healed. Once we have been healed, however, we must proclaim that salvation to others! (1Tim. 1:12-17)

Thought for the Day: When shall it be that we shall taste the sweetness of the Divine Will in all that happens to us, considering in everything only His good pleasure, by which it is certain that adversity is sent with as much love as prosperity, and as much for our good? When shall we cast ourselves undeservedly into the arms of our most loving Father in Heaven, leaving to Him the care of ourselves and of our affairs, and reserving only the desire of pleasing Him, and of serving Him well in all that we can?

Annual Blue Mass – Rev. Steve Anji,

Chancellor of the Archdiocese of Cincinnati and police chaplain, will be the principal celebrant of the ninth annual Blue Mass to be held at 11:00am, Sunday, September, 22, 2013, at the Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains, 325 W. Eighth Street, in downtown Cincinnati. All are welcome. Attendees should consider coming early to the Cathedral, about 10:30am, to see area fire trucks set up with flags hung from their extended ladders, and to see officers on horseback. A blessing ceremony begins at 10:45am for the attending members of police and fire departments, and on the equipment they use in the line of duty. Following the blessing, officers, family members and community members process into the Cathedral behind a bagpiper and color guard. At the end of the church service, names of safety personnel who have died this past year are read aloud. Fellowship and refreshments, on the plaza, follow the service. For more information on the Blue Mass, visit the Cathedral’s website at www.stpeterinchainscathedral.org.

The Family and Respect Life Office asks you to make note that Monday, September 23, 2013 has been set aside as “Family Day – A Day to Eat Dinner with your Children.” Join families across the country in sitting down that evening to eat together without hurry or distraction. Rediscover the sacredness of the family meal.
