Vocation View: Built of Living Stones, the Body of Christ shines with beauty and power to call the entire world to repentance and power in Christ!

Thought for the Day: Your first task is to be dissatisfied with yourself, fight sin, and transform yourself into something better. Your second task is to put up with the trials and temptations of this world that will be brought on by the change in your life and to persevere to the very end in the midst of these things.

Athletic Association Board Member

Elections: This year, our elections for Board positions will be held on Wednesday, November 19, 2014. Please consider joining our board. Playing sports is an important part of a child's growth and we need parents and grandparents (or anyone, really) who wants to help us provide this important experience for our children. Requirements vary for each position, but generally require you to attend one meeting per month. If you are interested in running for a position or would like additional information call John Schlachter at 251-1208.

Sports Coordinator Positions: We are in need of a girls volleyball coordinator and soccer coordinator for the upcoming season. Please consider becoming a coordinator.

Did you know our Athletic Association has monthly meetings that are open to ALL who wish to come? The meetings are held on the 3rd Wednesday of the month at 8pm.

from the Pastors' Desk:

Remembering the Dead: Traditionally, November is the month in which we remember all of the faithful departed.

I want to take this opportunity to correct a popular misconception about what happens after a person dies. Too many people believe that when a loved one dies the soul automatically goes to heaven. Well, maybe yes, and maybe no. That a loved one is in heaven is our hope, of course. But we do not know the state of a person's soul when he or she dies, only God knows. No matter what we think or want, we are not "the Judge," only God is.

When a person dies in a state of grace but the soul is not completely prepared to enter heaven, then he or she is placed in Purgatory for purification. God forbid that a person should die outside of the state of grace, that is, with unconfessed, unrepented mortal sin on their soul. So, what we should be doing for the deceased is praying that our hope of salvation and eternal life with the Lord will be realized in them. Hence, each and every day, we ought to pray for and offer our sufferings for the repose of all souls.

Sister Helen Julia's Thanksgiving/Christmas holiday collection of food and monetary donations for families in need is underway. I know that our St. Lawrence parishioners and friends will be generous so that Sister will be able to assist all those families who are in need. This collection will continue through December. Sister's Ministry envelopes are in the back of church and the food barrels are at the break (next to the pillars) for your food donations. Thank you for helping Sister help the needy. And thanks to Sister Helen Julia.

Today marks the anniversary of the dedication of the cathedral church of Rome, on land owned by the Laterani family, by Pope St. Sylvester I, 9 Nov. 324; honored as the Episcopal seat of the pope as bishop of Rome; according to an inscription which Pope Clement XII (1730-1740) placed on the façade, this basilica is the "mother and head of all churches of Rome and the world"; residence of the popes from the 4th c. until their moving to Avignon (1309); site of five ecumenical councils; Pope Innocent X commissioned the present structure in 1646; beneath its altar rests the remains of the small wooden table on which, according to tradition, St. Peter celebrated Mass; dedicated to the Savior, later to St. John the Baptist.
