Thank You for your Generosity!

Thought for the Day: "Thus I have shown you five paths of repentance: condemnation of your own sins, forgiveness of our neighbor's sins against us, prayer, almsgiving and humility. Do not be idle, then, but walk daily in all these paths; they are easy, and you cannot plead your poverty. For, though you live out your life amid great need, you can always set aside your wrath, be humble, pray diligently and condemn your own sins; poverty is no hindrance."

Saint John Chrysostom, bishop

Rest in Peace: Please pray for the repose of the souls of Joe Panno, Harry Beard and Marian Feldhaus who died recently.

SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS:

Tuesday, November 1 is the Solemnity of All Saints and it IS a Holyday of Obligation. Masses will be on Monday, October 31 at 3:00pm and Tuesday, November 1 at 8:30am, 11:00am and 7:00pm.

ALL SOULS DAY: Wednesday, November 2, is the day in which we especially remember all of the faithful departed. The 8:30am morning Mass will be offered for all of the holy souls in Purgatory.

Traditionally, November is the month in which we remember in special and practical ways the deceased members of our families, our deceased friends and all of the faithful departed.

Too many people believe when a loved one dies the soul automatically goes to heaven. Well, maybe yes, and maybe no. But we do not know the state of person's soul when he or she dies, only God knows. No matter what we think or want, we are not "the Judge," only God is.

When a person dies in a state of grace but the soul is not completely prepared to enter heaven, then he or she is placed in Purgatory for purification. (God forbid that a person should die outside of the state of grace, that is, with unconfessed, unrepented mortal sin on their soul.) So, what we should be doing for the deceased is praying that our hope of salvation and eternal life with the Lord will be realized in them. Hence, each and every day, we ought to pray for and offer our sufferings for the repose of all souls,

REMEMBER
THOSE WHO HAVE GONE
BEFORE US.
